THE BEAR INN

OUTSIDE MENU

The Bear Pub - A Little History

We are thought to be the oldest surviving pub in town - built, possibly in the 13th century, with oak beams that were originally part of a ship built in the nearby boatyard. It was purchased by Shepherd Neame in 1736. Although our frontage was completely rebuilt in around 1906 following a fire, we still retain our 3 Victorian bars full of original features and connected by a panelled passage (a rarity in modern pubs!). This includes the public bar at the front, the cosy snug in the middle, and the larger public bar at the back. Previous owners of the Bear include the doomed Thomas Arden who owned it in the 1540s.

We now wish to continue the Bear's story of hospitality and hope you will enjoy great food, great beer and a great atmosphere with us.
